CRIT

Clinical Retreat for Interdisciplinary Training
In Geriatrics and Palliative Care

The University of Louisville Trager Institute is excited to be hosting the 6th Annual CRIT program, a single-day immersive experience that increases the knowledge and leadership skills of professionals serving older adults.

U^{OF}L TRAGER INSTITUTE

CRIT reinforces the importance of interdisciplinary collaboration in caring for older adults. As such, CRIT provides learners a variety of professional development opportunities, including interdisciplinary case study, lectures from experts, leadership training, an action project, and networking opportunities.

WHAT TO EXPECT

The retreat program includes an interactive case divided into four modules that align with the 4-M Model of Age-Friendly Health Systems. Participants will be paired in interprofessional groups. Each module includes evidence-based mini-lectures on topics in geriatrics and palliative care, small group interactive exercises, and presentations designed to enhance clinical and leadership skills.
